

My radio station serves myself and others in the community by providing a different sample of music not currently available in the same quality and quantity.

If my current radio station were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, the current quality would not be maintained. For a one of a kind station, it can not be replaced.